College Student Scholarship Applicant:

The Mendocino County Farm Bureau Scholarship award is to give aid to students with a desire to start a career in the agricultural industry or in an ag-related field. The scholarship award is based on leadership skills, high school or college GPA, extra-curricular activities and "a commitment to study agriculture." You must be enrolled in a trade school, college or university, full time.

Please note: the 2019 scholarship application is the only one allowed for submittal
Typed applications are preferred

When you send your application in, it should be accompanied by the following items:

- * Current Official School Transcript
- * Completed Original Applicant Essay
- * Two current letters of recommendation

If any one of these items is missing from your application packet after March 15, your application WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED. If, for some reason, any of these items cannot be sent in with your application, but are POSTMARKED BY MARCH 15, the items will be included in your application packet for consideration.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE? Any full-time student, who is a resident of Mendocino County entering or attending an accredited trade school, college or university; or enrolled in a Mendocino County Community College; and majoring in an agricultural related field.

DO YOU HAVE TO BE A MEMBER OF MENDOCINO COUNTY FARM BUREAU?
NO, you do not.

WHAT CRITERIA IS USED TO SELECT A RECIPIENT? The award is made based on scholastic achievement, career goals, leadership skills, extra curricular activities, and determination.

WHAT IS THE DEADLINE? All information requested on the application must be postmarked on or before March 15. We will not process documents after this date.

IS A SCHOLARSHIP RENEWABLE? Past recipients of a Mendocino County Farm Bureau Scholarship award are encouraged to re-apply each year if they continue to meet eligibility requirements.

Finalists should understand that they might not have more than two weeks advance notice of the interview date.

A group of finalists will be selected for an interview with the Mendocino County Farm Bureau Scholarship Committee. These interviews usually take place in April. Finalists will be notified of the date, time and place of the interview in the notice of selection.
